

A.S. BRYDEN TO LIST ON THE TTSE

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad – August 21, 2025. A.S. Bryden & Sons Holdings (“A.S. Bryden”) today announced that it intends to list its ordinary and preference shares on the Trinidad and Tobago Exchange (“TTSE”) on Friday August 29, 2025.

A.S. Bryden is listing its existing shares by introduction and making them available for trading on the TTSE. The Company is not offering any new shares for sale to the public at this time.

In marking the occasion, P.B Scott, Chairman of A.S. Bryden said, “A.S. Bryden has operated in Trinidad and Tobago for over a century. We are delighted to now make its shares available for trading on the Trinidad and Tobago Stock Exchange for the first time. This listing fulfills our commitment to list A.S. Bryden on its local exchange and gives our business additional options for accessing capital in the future.”

Richard Pandohie, CEO of A.S. Bryden, said: “Our employees are the heart of our company, truly embodying the customer-first, people-centered approach that has made Brydens trusted and loved for generations. In fact, the majority of our employees in Trinidad are also shareholders. This listing on the TTSE not only provides them with a new market for their shares, but also opens the door for all stakeholders in Trinidad to share in A.S. Bryden’s continued success.”

Hamel Smith and Republic Wealth Management acted as A.S. Bryden’s legal counsel and brokers for the listing.
